

Music Press front Cover Exercise 2

Study the front cover and think about the target audience.

1. Fill in the masthead
2. Look at the leader article what sort of language do you think might be used in the coverlines?
3. How would the magazine introduce the two images shown?
4. How is representation shown on this front cover?

Study the front cover and think about the target audience.

1. Fill in the masthead
2. Look at the leader article what might the coverline say?
3. Look at the coverlines at the bottom of the page. What type of language would be appropriate for the target audience?
4. How is representation used on this front cover?

